Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, no minor boundary change may be proposed during the period of time beginning on April 1, 2015, and ending on June 30, 2016.

Section 2. There is hereby established the school district boundary task force. The task force shall examine the boundaries of the existing school districts and recommend possible changes to those school district boundaries. The task force will also recommend a process for addressing minor boundary changes in the future once the moratorium established in section 1 of this Act has ended. The task force will not discuss or make any recommendations regarding school district reorganization.

Section 3. The task force shall consist of nine members to be appointed as follows:

(1) Three members of the South Dakota Senate appointed by the president pro tempore of the Senate;

- (2) Three members of the South Dakota House of Representatives appointed by the speaker of the House of Representatives; and
- (3) Three members appointed by the Governor.

Section 4. The task force shall be under the supervision of the Executive Board of the Legislative Research Council and staffed and funded as a legislative interim committee. The task force shall complete its work and submit a final report to the Executive Board no later than December 1, 2015.

Section 5. Whereas, this Act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, an emergency is hereby declared to exist, and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and approval."
